

The menu is presented on a light cream background with a faint, artistic illustration of a flowering branch in shades of pink and green. The text is centered and uses a clean, sans-serif font. The 'A La Cart' title is enclosed in a thin circular border. Section headers like 'Starters' and 'Desserts' are underlined with short horizontal lines. The background illustration features a branch with several small, five-petaled pink flowers and green leaves, extending from the left side towards the center.
